News Notes

COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.—The College Entrance Examination Board held its first series of examinations on Saturday, December 7, 1946. During the remaining part of the academic year 1946-47 complete examinations will be held on Saturday, April 12, 1947, on Saturday, June 7, 1947, and on Wednesday, August 27, 1947. On each of the dates the schedule of tests will be as follows:

8:45 A.M.-12:30 P.M. Scholastic Aptitude Test, and Comprehensive Mathematics Test, including a short form of the verbal section of the Scholastic Aptitude Test; and 1:45 P.M. Achievement Tests—[A candidate may take one, two, or three (not more than three) of the following one-hour tests: English Composition; Social Studies; French, German, Spanish, and Latin Readings; Chemistry; Biology; Physics; and Spatial Relations.] 1:45 P.M.-5:30 P.M. (The Special Aptitude Test for Veterans (three hours) will also be administered at 1:45 P.M. by the Board on the second and fourth Saturday afternoons of each month in the following cities: Berkeley, Calif.; Buffalo, N.Y.; Cambridge, Mass.; Chicago, Ill.; Los Angeles, Cal.; New York, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Washington, D.C. The fee for this test is six dollars. Veterans should secure application forms and other pertinent information directly from their colleges. Only duly authorized veterans will be admitted.) All candidates will take Section I, Section II, and one of the three options in Section III: Section I—Verbal; Section II—Mathematics; and Section III—Spatial Relations, or Physical Science, or Social Studies Reading. The actual tests are scheduled to start at 9:00 A.M. and 2:00 P.M. respectively. No candidates will be admitted to an examination room after a test has begun.

Every candidate is required to file with the College Entrance Examination Board a formal application for examination and to pay an examination fee. The candidate should secure his application blank from the College Entrance Examination Board, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J., unless this form has already been supplied by his school or his prospective college. When requesting an application, the candidate should state whether he wishes the form for the April, June, or August tests. Application forms for any one series of tests will not be available (in the United States) until after the date of the preceding series; e. g., forms for the June, 1947, tests will not be mailed out until after April 12, 1947, the date on which the April examinations will be held. If a candidate wishes to have the results of his tests sent to more than one college, he should obtain and fill out for each additional college a separate copy of the upper section of the application form. These additional forms should be sent with the candidate's application and fee to the College Entrance Examination Board, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J.

Before registering for any of the Board's tests, the candidate should consult with the admissions office of his prospective college to determine what tests he will be required to take and on what date he should take them. Most of the colleges using the Board's tests prefer that their applicants register for the April series so that the admission committee can make their decisions at an early date. Some colleges recommend that their applicants take the Scholastic Aptitude Test during their junior year in secondary school. The Board is publishing a handbook which gives information regarding entrance requirements, expenses, scholarships, etc., for all its member colleges. (Annual Handbook, 1947, Terms of Admission to the Colleges of the College Entrance Examination Board. This handbook may be purchased from Ginn and Company, Statler Building, Post Office Box N, Boston 17, Massachusetts.) Other colleges, which are not members of the Board, also frequently require the Board's tests for entrance.

Candidates are cautioned to remember that they cannot take at the same series both the Comprehensive Mathematics Test (which includes a shortened form of the verbal section of the Scholastic Aptitude Test) and the Scholastic Aptitude Test, or both the Special Aptitude Test for Veterans and the Achievement Tests. The Special Aptitude Test for Veterans should be taken only by veterans on the recommendation of their prospective colleges. Veterans taking the Special Aptitude Test are not ordinarily required to take any other of the Board's tests. Before filing his application for examination, a candidate competing for a scholarship should make sure, by corresponding with the college or other sponsoring organization, that he is eligible to compete and that he has complied with the conditions of the competition.

The following is a detailed schedule of examination fees: both Scholastic Aptitude Test and one, two, or three Achievement Tests, $9.00; both Comprehensive Mathematics Test and one, two, or three Achievement Tests, $9.00; both Comprehensive Mathematics Test and Special Aptitude Test for Veterans, $9.00; both Scholastic Aptitude Test and Special Aptitude Test for Veterans, $9.00; Scholastic Aptitude Test when taken alone, $5.00; Comprehensive Mathematics Test when taken alone, $6.00; one, two, or three Achievement Tests when taken alone, $6.00; and Special Aptitude Test for Veterans when taken alone, $6.00.

Every candidate is required to pay the full examination fee; no allowance is made for fees paid for tests taken at a previous session. For example, a candidate who has already paid five dollars to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test at one series of tests must pay six dollars to take an achievement test at a subsequent series. Checks and money orders should be made payable to College Entrance Examination Board.

All applications and fees should reach the Board office not later than the following dates: East of the Mississippi River or on the Mississippi, March 22 for the April, 1947, series; May 17 for the June, 1947, series; and August 6 for the August, 1947, series—West of the Mississippi River or in Canada, Mexico, or the West Indies, March 15 for the April, 1947, series; May 10 for the June, 1947, series; and July 30 for the August, 1947, series—Outside of the United States, Canada, Mexico, and the West Indies, February 22 for the April, 1947, series; April 19 for the June, 1947, series; July 9 for the August, 1947, series.

The candidate must indicate on his application form the location of the examination center at which he wishes to take the tests. A list of the cities in which examination centers have been established for each of the examination dates may be secured from College Entrance Examination Board, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J. A candidate must be careful to refer to the centers established for the particular date on which he expects to take the examinations; the centers are not the same for all series. The Board will hold tests at each of the established centers for which at least one candidate registers prior to the closing date for receipt of applications. The complete address of the center for which a candidate has registered will be indicated on the ticket of admission which he receives from the Board. Additional examination centers in the United States will be arranged for the convenience of candidates who would otherwise have to travel a considerable distance (more than 65 miles) to reach an established center, provided the requests for these centers are received before the fifteenth of February, April, or July, for the April, June, or August series, respectively. A candidate who registers after these dates but who lives far from all the centers listed should inquire whether or not a more convenient center has been established. Requests for the establishment of centers outside of the United States, Canada, Mexico, and the West Indies should be filed six months in advance of the date of examination.

Each candidate will be sent a ticket of admission bearing his name and indicating the exact address of the examination center for which he has registered. The candidate will be required to show his ticket to the supervisor at both the morning and the afternoon tests. Should the candidate lose his ticket of admission, a charge of twenty-five cents will be made for a duplicate. A ticket issued for one date may not be used on any other date.

The Board will report the candidate's test scores to the institution indicated on his application. The college will in turn notify its candidates of the action taken on their applications for admission. If a candidate has not applied for admission to any college, he should write "College Undecided" on the appropriate lines of the application; the Board will then hold his report until he submits the name of the college to which the report should be sent. The Board will issue reports to two or three institutions without additional charge. Reports to institutions named after the first three will entail an extra fee of fifty cents each. The Board's member colleges require that every report indicate whether the college to which the report is sent is the first, second, third, or subsequent choice of the candidate, and for this reason the candidate must indicate his order of choice on his application form. Additional reports may be requested at any time, but no change in the colleges originally named on the application or in the order of choice may be made through the Board after the date on which the tests are held.

A CONFERENCE ON THE EDUCATION OF YOUTH IN AMERICA was held recently at Teachers College, Columbia University. This conference was an outgrowth of President James Bryant Conant's call for A Truce Among Educators in a lecture delivered at Teachers College in November, 1944, and published in the Teachers College Record the following month. Its purpose was to strengthen common understanding among representatives of colleges of liberal arts, teachers colleges, schools of education, and high schools, and thus to increase the likelihood of intelligent co-operative action. The reports presented were prepared in a preliminary effort to see what could be accomplished in the way of securing general agreement respecting basic educational policies and procedures. They are now subject to modification as a result of the conference discussions and will soon be published. Dean William F. Russell presided at the conference.

APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAMS UP 164 PER CENT IN YEAR.—The number of establishments with registered apprenticeship programs in the skilled trades in the United States has increased by more than 164 per cent from the end of September, 1945, to the end of September of this year according to the Information Department, Apprentice-Training Service, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, 25 D. C. The number of establishments with registered apprenticeship programs increased from 25,800 at the end of September, 1945, to 68,200 at the end of September, 1946. Local registered apprenticeship systems jumped from 4,840 in September, 1945, to 11,985 in September, 1946, and local joint management-labor apprenticeship committees from 1,894 to 3,843 during the same period. "Registered" systems and establishments are those approved by and listed with a state or Federal apprenticeship agency.

During the past twelve months national apprenticeship standards have been established for four trades in the construction industry: bricklaying, plastering, cement finishing, and roofing. This brings to ten, the number of trades in the construction industry for which such national apprenticeship standards have been set up. All ten were formulated by committees equally representative of national contractor and labor organizations. These national standards are patterns for setting up local apprenticeship systems, and specify that an apprentice be given training in all the skills of his trade, that he be given related classroom instruction, wages to be paid, and that these and other pertinent matters be covered by a written agreement.

A STORY OF A FILM.—RKO Pictures, Inc. has published a 32-page large pictorial and text booklet in color about the new picture The Best Years of Our Lives. This new film began as a paragraph in TIME magazine back in August 7, 1944, and is based upon MacKinlay Kantor's novel Glory For Me. A stupendous amount of work is wrapped up in the production of this outstanding film. A dozen cities were film-tested from the air before Cincinnati was chosen for "Boone City," the home town of the three heroes of the film. This attractive booklet gives an interesting account of the whole process of production and at the same time gives excellent background material concerning the actors in it.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN VETOES LANGUAGE BILL.—The President has withheld approval of a bill passed by the Legislature of Puerto Rico, and transmitted to him for signature after it had been vetoed by Acting Governor Manuel A. Pérez, which would have authorized the use of Spanish for teaching purposes in the public schools of Puerto Rico. At the same time, the bill would have made the teaching of English compulsory in the island's schools. In returning the bill without his approval, President Truman informed Jesus T. Pinero that he considered a satisfactory solution to Puerto Rico's political status to be of greater importance at the present time than any other measure, and expressed his belief that approval of the language bill would merely serve to confuse and retard efforts to find a solution to the problem of political status.—Puerto Rico, November 15, 1946.

TEACHING AIDS.—A new "package" of teaching tools for high schools and colleges, consisting of textbook, 16-mm sound motion pictures, and silent filmstrips, has been announced by McGraw-Hill Book Company, Inc., 330 West 42nd Street, New York 18, N.Y. Marking its entry into the educational film field, the company has started production of several series of McGraw-Hill Text-Films. Each series of films will be specially prepared for direct correlation with a particular textbook, using the same basic approach to the subject and the same terminology as the textbook. The films will be ready for distribution next Spring. Textbooks and films are all individually important teaching tools in the hands of the teacher. By providing these tools together in a single package for correlated use in a particular course of study, and providing also a manual suggesting how the package can be used effectively, student and teacher alike can be helped to increase the educational return from the course.

In the spring of 1946 a survey of 86 city school systems in Ohio with enrollments of 1,000 to 5,000 were contacted. The personnel practices on extracurricular activities of 42 of these systems replying is summarized in the October, 1946, (page 307) issue of the Ohio Schools. The table follows:

1947 NATIONAL TEACHER EXAMINATIONS AVAILABLE TO SCHOOL SYSTEMS AND TO COLLEGES.—The American Council on Education has announced the eighth annual administration of its National Teacher Examinations. These tests will be administered in official examining centers throughout the United States on February 8 and February 15 in 1947. Arrangements are now being made for the establishment of examining centers in connection with school systems and collegiate institutions engaged in teacher education.

The National Teacher Examinations were made available by the American Council on Education as an aid to administrators in their efforts to improve the selection of teachers. The tests included in the battery are designed to provide objective measurement of certain of the abilities and knowledges of prospective teachers. They measure the intellectual, academic, and cultural backgrounds of prospective teachers, and are used in combination with records of experience, academic marks, ratings in various aspects of personality, etc. in the evaluation of an individual's qualifications for teaching. Superintendents and Boards of Education in many localities require teaching applicants to present National Teacher Examination records. The examinations are also used in colleges as qualifying examinations and as guidance instruments to provide additional bases for student self-study of individual strengths and weaknesses in areas measured by tests.

The sponsors of the program emphasize the fact that misuse of the examination results as a sole basis for teacher selection is opposed. Records of experience, academic marks, ratings of various aspects of personality, etc. should be considered in addition to the National Teacher Examination record in the evaluation of a prospective teacher's competency. Used in combination with additional information of the types named, it is believed that the National Teaching Examination results can contribute materially to the attainment of education's fundamental goal, the provision of the best possible instruction for young people in the schools.

Arrangements for co-operation in the Teacher Examination project may be made by writing to Dr. David G. Ryans, Associate Director, National Committee on Teacher Examinations, American Council on Education, 15 Amsterdam Avenue, New York 23, New York.

HIGH-SCHOOL EDITORS RECEIVED BY UNITED NATIONS.—Several months ago Benjamin Cohen, Assistant Secretary-General for the Department of Public Information of the United Nations, held a press conference for a group of editors and faculty advisers of high-school newspapers and magazines of the New York area. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, member of the U. S. Delegation to the General Assembly, Mr. Carlos Davila, Delegate of Chile to the Economic and Social Council and Dr. P. C. Chang, Chinese delegate to the same Council, spoke briefly and answered questions from the visitors. The meeting was arranged by Mr. Olav Paus-Grunt, Chief of the Educational Services Section of the Department of Public Information, Lake Success, New York. Before introducing the speakers, Mr. Cohen explained to the audience the work being done by the United Nations Department of Public Information by means of publications, radio, visual information, etc. He also informed them of the establishment of a Special Educational Section within the Department, and offered the resources of the United Nations Survey of Public Opinion to the editors of the high-school publications in connection with any particular situation which might interest them. Mrs. Roosevelt, who remarked that there were comparatively few women delegates and alternate members of delegations to the United Nations, explained the representation and functions of the various Assembly Committees. She also expressed the view that the United Nations greatest value was that it was a continuing organization. She emphasized that one of its greatest obligations is to let the people know what the United Nations is doing. Mrs. Roosevelt then answered many questions and told the students that in order to secure everlasting peace, they must, as citizens, be interested first in securing good government in their communities. After the meeting, the Assistant Secretary-General, Mr. Cohen, invited the high-school students to attend the afternoon plenary meeting of the General Assembly.

INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE.—Hundreds of high-school students throughout the United States are getting first-hand information about the life, customs, and economics of foreign countries through correspondence. This practice not only provides information but it also offers an excellent way through which students may develop, in a practical manner, better facility in the use of English and in the art of self-expression. The November, 1946, issue of The English Journal (page 505) lists agencies through which schools may secure names of foreign pupils interested in correspondence. This list has been supplied to the Journal by Dr. Harold Benjamin of the U. S. Department of Education through Mildred C. Schmidt of the University School, Ohio State University. The list follows: Mrs. Alice L. Thorndon, National Headquarters, American Junior Red Cross, Washington 13, D. C.; Dr. N. H. Crowell, International Students' Society, Hillsboro, Oregon; Mrs. Alice Wilson, Student Forum on International Relations, George Washington High School, San Francisco, California. R. C. Mishek, Student Letter Exchange, Waseca High School, Waseca, Minnesota. M. A. Sohrab, Director, The Caravan, 132 East Sixty-fifth Street, New York City. Junior Department, The Christian Science Monitor, Boston 15, Massachusetts. Mrs. Margaret Johnston, World Friends' Club (boys and girls, ages ten through twenty), The Cleveland Press, Cleveland, Ohio. Division of Inter-American Educational Relations, United States Office of Education, Washington 25, D. C. Dr. A. I. Roehm, Director of National Bureau of Educational Correspondence, George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee.

TEEN-AGE EMPLOYMENT.—Teen-age employment has continued at a high level since the war ended, according to the Annual Report of the National Child Labor Committee issued by Mrs. Gertrude Folks Zimmand, General Secretary, under the title, "Child Labor—In the First Year After the War." Exact figures for 1946 are not yet available but estimates based on employment certificate and other figures indicate that approximately 2,000,000 young people 14 to 18 are still employed full- or part-time—a million less than at the peak of wartime employment and a million more than were employed before the war. That the decline in the employment of teen-agers has not been as rapid and spectacular as had been anticipated, Mrs. Zimmand said, can be accounted for largely by the fact that so far, the level of employment generally has not declined. The curve of youth employment has always followed the curve of general employment.

"With jobs still to be had," Mrs. Zimmand stated, "the young people who left school for work during the war have not returned to school to any noticeable degree and their ranks continue to be augmented by new school-leavers. The jobs and the pay are not as good as they used to be for there is no longer a large market for the services of teen-age workers in industrial occupations and they have to find their employment mainly in the less well-regulated and less well-paid trade and service jobs, or in agriculture, in which both regulation and good pay are conspicuous mainly by their absence. Short of another depression—and unemployment is a costly price to pay for increased school attendance—most of these young workers are lost to the schools for good. 'Back to School' has become a useless slogan, for a return to high school is considered 'kid stuff' by the seasoned teen-age war worker. This problem was foreseen when school leaving mounted rapidly and high-school enrollments decreased with equal rapidity between 1941 and 1945. States and communities were urged to make provision for the needs of those who took full-time jobs before they had finished high school by establishing special courses and training programs for them. Little or nothing of this nature has been provided, however, and it is unlikely that the inadequate education of this group will ever be supplemented." For the future, efforts must be turned to ways of making "Stay-in-School" a reality, instead of merely another empty slogan, for the young people now in school. The following four-point program to accomplish this, outlined in the Committee's Annual Report, emphasizes both the legislative and educational aspects of holding young people longer in school.

First, a considerable number of 14- and 15-year-old children are continuing to leave school for employment. Efforts must be redoubled to eliminate exemptions for children under 16 years in compulsory attendance laws and to bar all employment during school hours for children under 16.

Second, the reduction in child labor has been least in miscellaneous part-time occupations—the type of work which is usually least desirable and least well regulated as to hours and conditions of work. Efforts must be concentrated on regulating the type and amount of employment which school-age children are permitted to undertake in addition to their school work.

Third, illegal child labor, although apparently somewhat less than during the war years, is still prevalent. With the tremendous wartime pressure on Labor Departments abating to some degree, it should be possible to secure a much higher degree of compliance with child-labor regulations. Enforcement procedures should be analyzed, and, where necessary, additional personnel, higher qualifications for personnel, and larger appropriations for the enforcement of the law should be urged.

Fourth, probably the major child-labor problem is the very large number of young people who leave school for work before they complete high school. The extent of school drop-outs is considered by many educators to be the major problem in secondary education today. Increasingly, educators are recognizing that this is not solely—perhaps not primarily—due to the financial inability of young people to continue in school—but rather to factors that lie within the province of the school to remedy. Early termination of school life is being recognized as basically the result of maladjustment to or lack of interest in school. There is need for an intensive study of a large number of young people who have dropped out of school to determine the real factors that prompted their withdrawal from school and what types of school program might have encouraged them to remain in school.

WHY TEACH SAVING?—When teachers ask, "Why should we teach pupils to save?", the answer may be: "You should teach saving because it helps each pupil to build his future." Or, "The habit of saving even small sums regularly is valuable." Or, "Inflation still threatens; every dollar in savings helps curb it." Or, "Our economy is more stable when the interest on the national debt goes into the pockets of the largest possible number of citizens." All these are good reasons for teaching pupils to save, but they are all simply different aspects of one fundamental reason, namely: The stability of our country rests on the personal security of our individual citizens. That is the fundamental reason to teach pupils to save. Through the School Savings Program of the U. S. Treasury Department they also learn something about their government's finances while they are saving. These are the reasons that schools by the thousand, and more every day, display the School Savings Charter, symbol of their enrollment in the nation-wide School Savings Program "to promote understanding of the national and personal reasons for saving and to give students the opportunity to save regularly at school for the purchase of U. S. Savings Stamps and Bonds." New free teaching aids have been made available by the Treasury's Savings Bonds Division to help teachers integrate school sales of stamps and bonds with regular classroom subjects. The teaching aids are available on request to the U. S. Savings Bond Office in each State. With a Stamp Day at school each week, and the aid of study units, posters, plays, and other materials, teachers can help every pupil to become a more secure adult, fully aware that his own well-being and his country's are inextricably bound together.

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL (Film).—This technicolor, 800 feet, 16-mm one-reel film is a special adaptation for the Treasury Department by Warner Bros. as a public service to promote U. S. Savings Stamps and Bonds. In this film, the amazing beauty of America unfolds in scene after scene from "sea to shining sea." All the rich color and endless variety of our land are here to be seen and remembered. It is not just another travelogue, but a memorable journey. Requests for this film should be sent to the office of the State Director of the U.S. Savings Bonds Division in your state.

AMERICA UNITED—We Hold These Truths is the title of four posters which the Council Against Intolerance is distributing, without charge, to teachers and others in educational work. Pronouncement of four great Americans are woven into photographic montages to illustrate the principles which these national leaders have enunciated to make America united. The four posters, accompanied by suggestions for classroom use, illustrate statements by George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Photographs of many types of Americans busy at their daily tasks bring out the fact that it takes all kinds of folks to make a nation. The posters and the suggestions for their use may be obtained from the Council Against Intolerance, 17 East 42 Street, New York 17, New York. Schools should always state school affiliation when requesting the posters.

NEW SCIENCE ADVENTURES FILMS ON BASIC BIRD STUDY.—A new series of six discussional slidefilms, "Basic Bird Studies," has been produced and made available by The Jam Handy Organization. This series, a unit of the Science Adventures group, provides the teacher or lecturer with a comprehensive, carefully planned foundation for the study of bird life and may be used as a part of the general science course. This series is more than a mere group of bird photographs—it is a time-saving teaching and study "tool" complete in itself and yet designed to tie in with reading materials, experiments, and field trips where programs permit. Subjects are: 1—"Structure of Birds." 2—"Adaptation of Birds." 3—"Birds' Nests." For details, write to The Jam Handy Organization, 2821 E. Grand Blvd., Detroit 11, Michigan.

EDUCATIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS FOR GERMANY.—The U. S. Department of State, Washington 25, D.C., has recently released a 46-page mimeographed report of the United States Education Mission to Germany. This Mission composed of nine noted educators under the chairmanship of Dr. George F. Zook, in response to an invitation of the Department of State and the War Department, undertook to make a study of the educational program of the United States Military Government in Germany. The members of the Mission were profoundly impressed with the significance of the educational problem in Germany, not only for the Germans but for all the world. The recommendations contained in this report it is hoped will aid materially in the solution of these problems.

PENNSYLVANIA PRINCIPALS STUDY SECONDARY EDUCATION.—The Pennsylvania Branch of the National Association of Secondary-School Principals has conducted, for the second summer, a series of conferences in secondary education. During the months of June and July eight conferences, attended by more than five hundred teachers and administrators, were held at college centers in different areas of the State for the purpose of discussing problems considered most vital at the present time. The general plan provided for the grouping of the persons in attendance into a limited number of committees each of which discussed a specific topic under the leadership of a chairman and consultant.

Nine topics were considered, including (1) family life education, (2) characteristics of the junior high school, (3) teacher qualifications, (4) teacher assignments in class and extra-class activities, (5) joint responsibilities of teachers and principals, (6) community activities of teachers, (7) improvement of attendance, (8) public relations, and (9) intercultural relations. The reports from the local study groups were summarized for publication in a printed bulletin. The entire project has been financed jointly by the Pennsylvania State Education Association and the State Association of Secondary-School Principals. —Pennsylvania School Journal, October, 1946.

LOCAL SCHOLARSHIPS.—The American Legion Post 155 of Harvey, Illinois, recently voted into actuality a motion which will send one "deserving Thornton High School graduate to the Thornton Junior College on a two-year scholarship," according to Haskell W. Harr, commander of the Harvey post. This motion was sponsored by two World War II members, Walter L. Bielawski and Earl Craig. These two-year scholarships will be awarded every year for an indefinite number of years, to the student, a resident of Thornton Township, who, during four years in high school has proved himself scholastically capable of attaining a higher education, but who through financial difficulties would be unable to continue further studies. The first scholarship will be awarded for the 1947 fall semester. The choice of the student "regardless of sex, color, or religion," as specified in the motion, will be made by a committee from the Legion Post which will act with the aid of high-school officials. Other scholarships are also offered by Thornton Junior College, which has a scholarship committee for the purpose of choosing a limited number of scholarship students from the upper ten per cent of the high-school graduating classes of Cook County schools. There is also the Clara Cantrell Scholarship Guild, a memorial to the late Mrs. Clara Cantrell by her daughter, Miss Carrie Cantrell. This scholarship is given to an outstanding colored student from the graduating class of Thornton Township High School.

MOTION PICTURES IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.—When the pupils of Nebraska started back to their high schools this fall, they found that their curriculum for the year was enriched by extensive use of specially selected motion pictures. The experiment is being jointly financed by the University of Nebraska Teachers College and Extension Division, the Nebraska Department of Public Instruction, Teaching Film Custodians, Inc., and Carnegie Corporation of New York. It is being developed through the Universities of Nebraska and of Omaha and four state teacher training colleges, each of these six institutions working with four high schools in their respective areas.
